And matt*

Matt got out of your truck from the passenger side and there was another guy y'all were talking to with a safety vest on I was sitting right there when you pulled up in the parking lot

I apologize I shouldn't have done it and it won't happen again if you can give me an extra two week extension that would be nice but what I'm asking for is another chance that's all I'm asking

This is your 14 day notice for tampering with the mailbox. Your final day is 10/1/2023 at The Ridgewood program

Please text me.

I made a mistake but why are you being so strict or low tolerant with me?

I had no bad intentions and even though i touched the mail, looked for my name i didnt take any of the mail out the box.

I caught you.

You failed to hold yourself accountable.

I'm not willing to tolerate it.

If you need an extra 2 weeks you may be eligible for extension

I ASK that you ua him even though he has stuff to hide it in his pee. Let him know that you know what he's doing and that he needs to stop it. He asked me if i talked to other people about and i said yes because i needed advice on how to deal with this. He asked if i talked to you and i said i dont want to talk about that. So im gonna let him know that i asked you to give him another chance.
